We Said Goodbye To Sabrina...

By Nell Smith

We said goodbye to Sabrina the other day and we were very sad. I never knew Sabrina but I attended the services and was uplifted and inspired because of the story which was unfolded.

Sabrina was only fifteen years old when she was struck down by a speeding car. She was the daughter of Elder Wayne and Barbara Barker and a member of the Castro Valley Ward.

The Barkers have two sons, Kenneth who has served a mission and Douglas who is presently preaching the Gospel in Japan.

The third child born to them was a little girl who only lived two days and then they found they could have no more children.

But their desire for a daughter persisted and they prayed constantly for such a blessing.

While the family was in Holland on a work assignment they heard that they might adopt a little girl from a hospital in Tripolis near Athens, Greece. Barbara flew to Tripolis to investigate and found, not one but two girl babies who had been born the same day to different mothers.

After two weeks of indecision she telephoned her husband and said they'd have to take them both. He agreed and joined his wife in Tripolis and Sabrina and Marina joined the Barker family. They were born February 23, 1956.

Back at The Hague, Brother Barker blessed and named his two daughters in the Dutch language. Before they returned to the States, when the babies were but one year old, their parents visited the beautiful Swiss Temple and performed the sealing ordinances to assure the eternal unity of the family.

Sabrina traveled to many places with her family during her short fifteen years. She learned to love and appreciate the sights and people of other lands. Those who were fortunate to know Sabrina testify to her sweetness, her cheerful disposition and her love of the Gospel. Someone mentioned the rejoicing which would take place when she met her sister who preceded her through the veil.

The grass was very green and the flowers bright and beautiful when they placed her on her last earthly resting place. Six handsome and earnest young priests stepped forward and placed a last flower at her feet. And I thought, Sabrina, a lovely girl, just fifteen, who loved flowers and boys, would like that!

Yes, we said goodbye to Sabrina and felt sad. But we thanked our Heavenly Father for the Gospel teachings which gives us the certain knowledge of the eternal unity of the family and that we will meet again.

Church Foursome Entertains

Troops Get Double Double Treat

The Double Image is none other than the Hunter Sisters. Sharon, Sandra, Reane, & Renae. Two identical sets of twin sisters that have a sound all their own. These talented girls decided in 1969 to enter the entertainment world because of the many requests and offers.

The girls are very active in the Church and have held various positions in Music, Teaching, MIA Choir, etc. They started singing for Church Building Fund Benefits, Music Festivals and various church activities, including Sacrament Meetings.

They have performed at "Bimbo's 365 Club", "The Purple Onion", "The Hungry i", the "Richard King in Las Vegas Show", and with Lawrence Welk at the Palladium.

The Double Image is a unique singing group with an ample supply of talent. Sharon studied music at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music; Sandra plays the piano; Reane plays the piano and Renae is a Concert Pianist, taking her studies to Canada. They also arrange their own vocal arrangements when singing.

Their singing is very versatile and they appeal to both the younger generation (rock) and the older generation (easy listening). Their blend is modern and close (they attribute their good blend to being related to one another - twins).

They have a promising career ahead and recently recorded four original

Prophet's Wife Dies at 68

Mrs. Jessie Evans Smith, 68, third wife of President Joseph Fielding Smith, died Tuesday night, August 3, of a heart ailment.

Stricken July 9, Mrs. Smith entered the LDS Hospital in Salt Lake City and was released July 30 after responding to treatment.

Funeral services were held Thursday, August 5 in Salt Lake City with President N. Eldon Tanner conducting.

Jessie Ella Evans Smith established herself as Utah's "First Lady of Song" throughout more than half a century of innate vocal artistry in opera, on radio, the concert stage, and as featured soloist with the Mormon Tabernacle Choir.

San Leandro Stake Teaches The Gospel

SAN LEANDRO-An opportunity to learn more about the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is being offered by the six wards which make up the San Leandro Stake.

The unusual structure of the church itself, and the responsibility assumed by each member, will be explained along with the beliefs and attitudes which are unique to Mormons. A tour of the beautiful facilities in Oakland is also planned.

Richard King, San Leandro attorney and singer, will present two of the four scheduled lectures. His brother Roy, who is also an attorney and a former missionary, will give a talk. Both are elders in the church.

ON SEPT. 9 the subject will be "The Family In Crisis-A Mormon Response," presented by Mrs. Margaret Marchant, church member, mother and business woman. "The Mormon Community" will be Roy King's topic on Sept. 16.

Richard King will close the series on Sept. 23 with a talk on "Mormonism, Democracy and the 20th Century."

The Mormons have no paid clergy, but most males 12 years and above are eligible to serve in some capacity. They are divided into the Aaronic or Lesser Priesthood and the Melchizedek or High Priesthood.

Deacons, teachers and priests make up the lower ranks, and elders, seventies and high priests make up the Melchizedek Priesthood.

Seventy James Webb has coordinated this project. Members of the San Leandro, San Lorenzo, and Castro Valley Wards have cooperated.

The informational lectures are scheduled each Thursday during September at the San Leandro chapel. Richard King will ask "Who Are The Mormons?" at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 2.

Scott Knew All Along

Scott Heaton has known for years that he would be called on a mission--and that when the call came it would be to a German-speaking nation. Therefore, on the premise of this belief it was only natural, during his sophomore year, he started his studies of the German language.

His call arrived during his employment hours, so his family drove to his job site and called him outside. Scott opened his letter. After several tense moments he looked up and explosively said, "I don't believe it!"

He leaves in September and his destination is--Austria. He anticipates a tremendous spiritual mission and says that he knows "he will change a great deal."

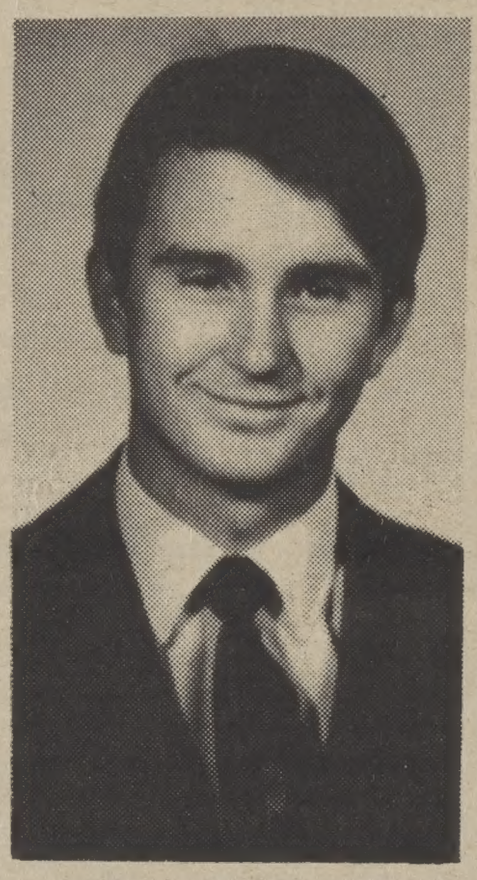
"Two years will go quickly", Scott said, "and upon my return I shall complete my studies at BYU, followed by the study of law."

"What field of law, Scott, corporate? criminal?"

"I want to study constitutional law--a field in which I can be spiritually involved because I want to help people--and my country. I want to uphold our Constitution--which will be as a thread."

Scott is a very gifted artist--sketching, contemporary, surrealistic--all of which distinctly speaks out clearly with movement, grace, moods, expressive in both the imaginary and realism.

Jonas and Rita Heaton (Bishop-Daly City) with son, Even, enthusiastically share Scott's mission--as they have his decision and years of preparation. And although Scott said "I don't believe it!"--actually, he knew it all the time!



SCOTT HEATON, called to Austria.

The Church will place around 5,000 Indian students for the school year 1971-72, up from 4,200 last year, and 2,100 in 1967-68.

The program is being directed through the Social Services Office in Fremont, which also handles child adoptions, youth guidance and unmarried parents. Oleson reports that there are now over 500 Indian students at BYU, more than at any other college or university in the U.S. There are also 80 Indians on full-time missions.

BUILDING PROJECT

The San Lorenzo Chapel, which resembles a beautiful Southern plantation home from the front, will have its cultural hall enlarged to accommodate regulation basketball, a new junior Sunday School chapel, a meeting house library, a new baptismal font and...a smaller office for Bishop Hill. What did he do?.

SONOMA PARADE

Growing into one of the significant missionary events in Northern California is the annual JULY 24 PIONEER DAY PARADE in Sonoma, conceived and sponsored by the Sonoma Ward, Napa Stake. Originally started three years ago as a fund raising project for the ward (profits this year: $3,500) it is becoming famous throughout the Napa Valley and far corners of the state, and this year the Grand Marshall of the Parade was the Mayor of Sonoma.

Local stakes entering floats were Concord and San Leandro. General Chairman was Bernice Stockton, of Sonoma Ward.

You had a most interesting article on David Hoopes in your August issue...however, he must be even more stupendous than you make him out if he was "born Aug. 15, 1972 in Twin Falls, Idaho," and is also "a native of Oakland, California."

"The days of miracles have indeed not passed. Anyhow, we've had one of the best laughs we've had in a long time."

Bishop Callahan, his wife Ruby, and daughter Sharon, have returned from a very enjoyable three-week vacation in the Eastern States. They visited the Bishop's brothers and sisters and his married daughter, her husband and children in Delaware. They spent three days on his daughter's beautiful house-boat going down Chespeake Bay. They also visited several places in New Jersey, New York, and Washington, D.C.

We have three new babies in the ward. The happiest parents are probably Richard and Ann West who have their first boy. They have three daughters. Their joy could be equaled by the Max Wildes who have a new daughter, their first child. The Adan Rodriguez family welcomed their fourth son. They have four daughters. The babies were blessed by their fathers in Sacrament Meeting August 1. The Wests named their son Bjorn Richard. The Wildes gave their daughter the name Michelle Lynn. The Rodriguez baby was named Joshua Paul.

Word has just been received of another new baby in the Ward. Sandy Coulter and husband have a baby girl born August 9 at 5:01 p.m. She weighed 6 lbs. 15¾ oz.

The Mutual Marrieds met at the home of Brother and Sister Harlan Harwood where they had a very pleasant evening hearing Dr. Rodney Palmer, of Castro Valley Ward, tell of his trip to the Orient and viewing slides of the same.

John Glissmeyer returned Saturday evening, August 14, from a two-year mission to Norway.

Dr. and Mrs. Pierce Nelson accompanied the San Leandro High School Jazz Band on its European tour. Best High School Jazz Bands from around the world met in Switzerland where the final judging took place. San Leandro High School Jazz Band won first place and Eric Nelson won awards and honors as best trumpet player. We are proud of Eric's achievements and offer our congratulations.

Randy and Naoma Randall and girls went to Canada for their vacation. They visited the temple in Cardston.

Melinda Orton and Julie Wakefield also went to Hawaii for their vacation.

The San Leandro Ward picnic was held at Washington Manor Park. There was plenty of good food--salads, hot dogs, hamburgers, cakes, punch and watermelons. The men played baseball and horse shoes.

For 3rd place-Pleasant Hill 2nd
For 2nd place-Danville Ward
For 1st place-Orinda Ward

The top winning ward, Orinda, presented a clever skit entitled "The Mystery of Mr. Ree (One tooth Ree) which was about a young man with only one tooth, who wanted the hand of a young lady but was upset about his situation. Upon their wedding day she smiled and had only one tooth also! Included were very nice costumes and colorful scenery.

Balboa

A catered Italian-style dinner, the BASH, on August 20th, along with the accompanying old-time movies and play, was well attended by Balboa Ward members. The dinner was provided by Bill and Marilyn Session of Union City; Bill recently retired from the Navy after 30 years service--before retirement he was food service CWO. The dinner provided some more money for the Stake missionary fund.

The Priesthood Executive Committee was reorganized. Now it consists of R. Miller (executive secretary for home teaching), H. Grant Bennion (Aaronic Priesthood adult General Secretary), Richard Liddel (Aaronic priesthood youth general secretary, YMMIA superintendent and institutional representative), Steve Sanchez (secretary of YMMIA), Frank Swift (assistant to Liddell), Bernard Skagfjord (High Priest group leader), Alfred Fabela (70's group leader), Larry Wilson (Elders Quorum president), Jerry Ostler (Bishop), Edwin Reber (1st councillor to Bishop), Melvin Wilcox (2nd councilor to bishop) and Harold Lockwood (ward clerk).

The ward council, which consists of the Priesthood Executive Committee plus the Relief Society president, the Sunday School superintendent, the YWMIA president and the Primary president, was further changed by the appointment of Roberta Thomsen as Primary president.

It appears that the new Student Ward (which is being organized as part of the general program to counteract the increasing amount unmarried men & women ages 18 to 29) has two applications for transfer by present Balboa Ward members. Most members will probable students attending the various colleges in San Francisco who are living away from home.

The Sunday School superintendency predict better attendence at Sunday School this month, since the teacher assignments have resulted in good teachers who have an interest in their work and are liked by their pupils.

Daly City

Oftentimes we are prone to "slide" over the little niceties of life without probing behind the scene to what people are actually saying to us. The following letter is representative of this. It is a "thank you" letter-but it is also much more. It pays tribute to many parents-parents who love and take time with their children who, in turn, reflect their love and teachings. But it is also even more-for it reflects the teachings of the LDS doctrine-as taught by Jesus Christ.

Here is an unsolicited letter, written by a very young lady who met her first Mormon over a year ago, giving an account of her first contact with Mormon youth. Let's listen to her.....

"Dear Donna, Wanda, Cindy, Gayle and Lynn:

I really enjoyed the overnight slumber party. However, the opportunity to know such wonderful people like you stands apart from any other experience I have ever had.

You girls are very close to one another as you have known each other for years, and yet when I entered the picture you made me feel as though I'd known each of you for a long time....and I probably have. You all had a tremendous feeling toward each other....it was one of understanding and forgiveness.

In every conversation we had, none of you ever really "tore down" anything or anyone. Instead, you were always uplifting and understanding. Also, a statement was never made without proof or reason to back it up, and although the conversations sometimes got lively, I never heard a single "dirty" word. All of you are very patriotic and you have strong faith and devotion to your principles.

In all my life I have never known people so friendly and warm as you. Thank you for the wonderful experience of knowing you.

Love,

Sheryl Nibler

Pittsburgh

Pittsburg Ward was the scene of festivity as the members of the Ward gathered together to celebrate the arrival of the Pioneers into the Salt Lake City Valley on that memorial 24th of July so many years ago. A potluck dinner replete with watermelon, desserts, hot dishes, salads and drinks was served to the overflow crowd, which was followed by games and a delightful program portraying "Families Are Special", enacted by the Primary children of the ward. Under the direction of Rosan Thomson, the children sang special songs led by Viola Davidson with Thora Astle serving as accompanist. Many months of preparation had taken place to present this special performance by the teachers, officers and the outside help in preparing art work as special effects. Sister Deanna Budge served as narrator. To all who made this joyous occasion, appreciation for the many hours of work was most appreciated.

"SEE YOU IN SEPTEMBER" was the theme of the M.I.A. closing social held in late July. Chairman for the party, under the direction of Sallie Gonzaga and Tom Monteath, Activity Counselors was Gary Johnson, Bishop's Youth Committee. The hall was decorated with festoons of gold and green streamers and colors of the M.I.A. with the dinner tables decorated in the same decor. After the special dinner the night moved rapidly along from one event to another as the young people played games, danced and won contests.

Martinez

By LaVerne Corsi

Well, summer vacation is finally drawing near a close and it's nice to see so many of our familiar faces back home again. It's nice to know that so many were fortunate enough to get away and enjoy themselves, but, it's also nice to have them home.

Summer does bring something very special besides vacations, and that's Summer Weddings. Claudia Lynn Neilson, daughter of Richard K. and Marilyn Nielson, married Eric Dillon from Sacramento in the Oakland Temple on August 6, 1971. Congratulations from all of Martinez Ward to the new Mr. and Mrs. Dillon.

At the time this message is being written, the Adventurers, along with Niel Ross, David Peal, and Jim Kennedy, are roughing their way down the Sacramento River on a self-made raft. They made the raft out of several inner tubes and some ply wood. Good Luck!

We have a new Chorister in Primary. We thank you, Stephanie Cluff, for accepting this call.

We really had a great turn out for out picnic at the Martinez Municipal Park. The men played softball (they wouldn't let the gals in--funny what fear of losing will do), the children played games winning candy, gum and money, there was swimming and all kinds of fun. The best part of it all was the Bishopric footing the bill for the hamburgers! It was great and

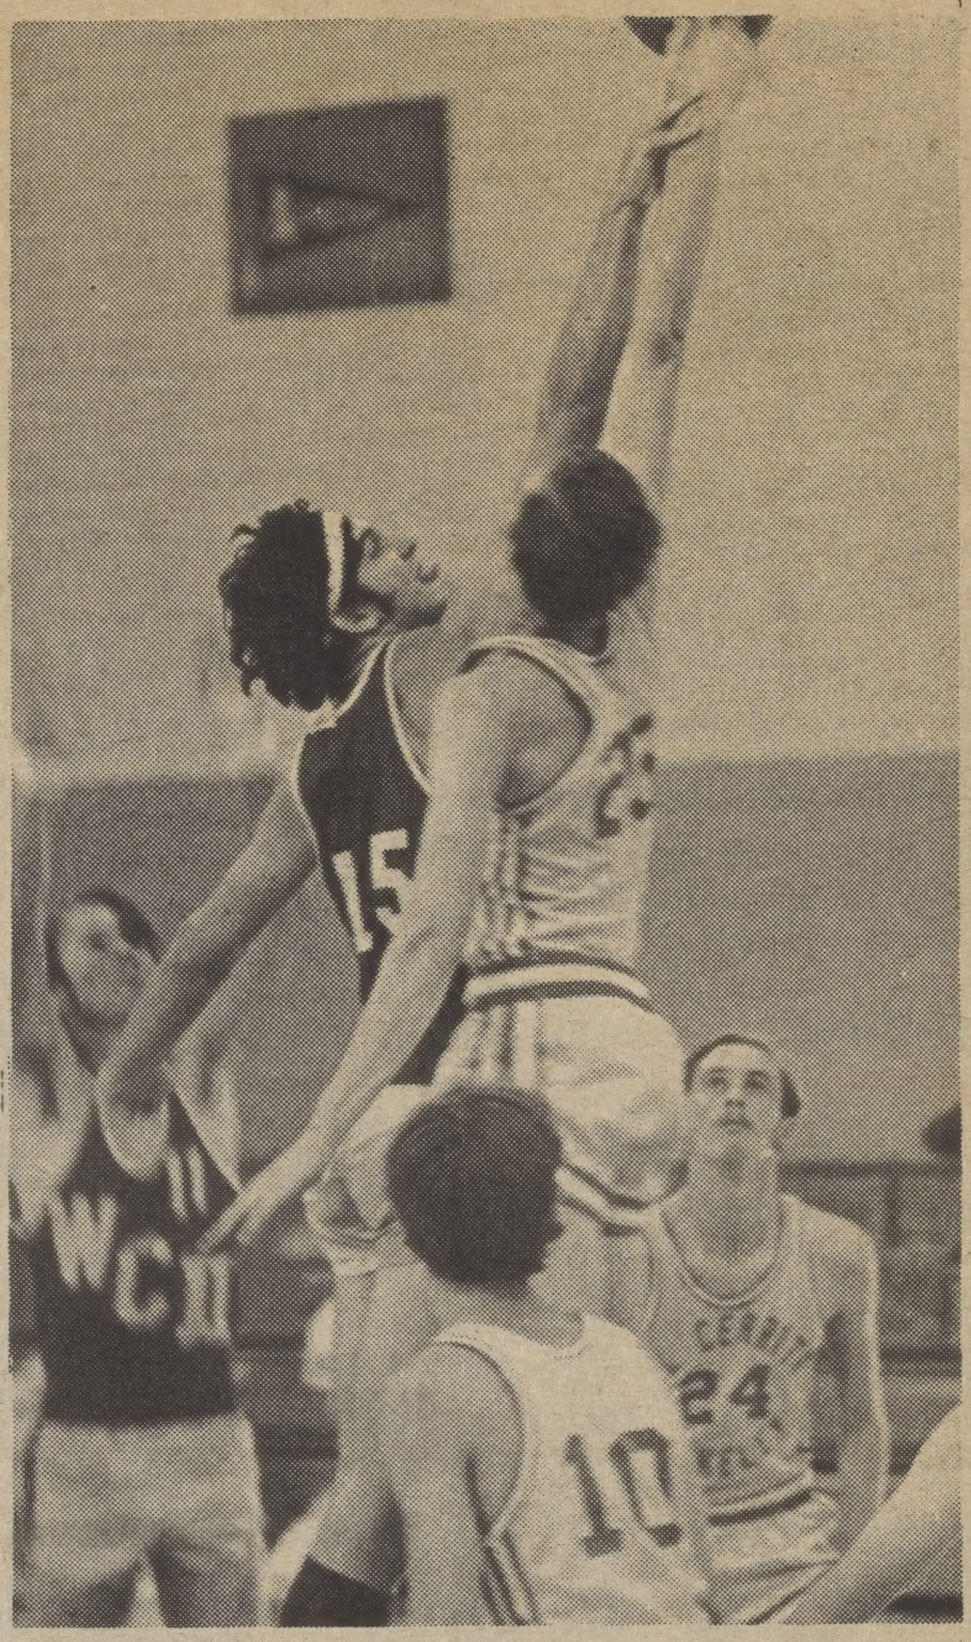
Story by Jane Sylvester and Rayann Clawson



PLAYERS FROM Oakland-Berkeley meet those from Walnut Creek in a strenuous basketball tournament Saturday afternoon.

'A New High'

The conference was a reaching for "A New High"--a "New High" in friendship and spirituality--and that it certainly was!

It all began last November with Br. Frank Higham of Oakland-Berkeley Stake calling people to the organizing of this great event, new to our region. Fred Woolfe and Sue Pedersen were chairmen on the Youth Conference Steering Committee. Plans were made for the formation of ten committees, each staffed with a chairman and co-chairman, an adult chairman, and a youth representative from each stake, i.e., Oakland-Berkeley (hosting), San Leandro, Hayward, and Walnut Creek.

Involvement is an idea newly put to work in our MIA programs--an idea that will pay off!

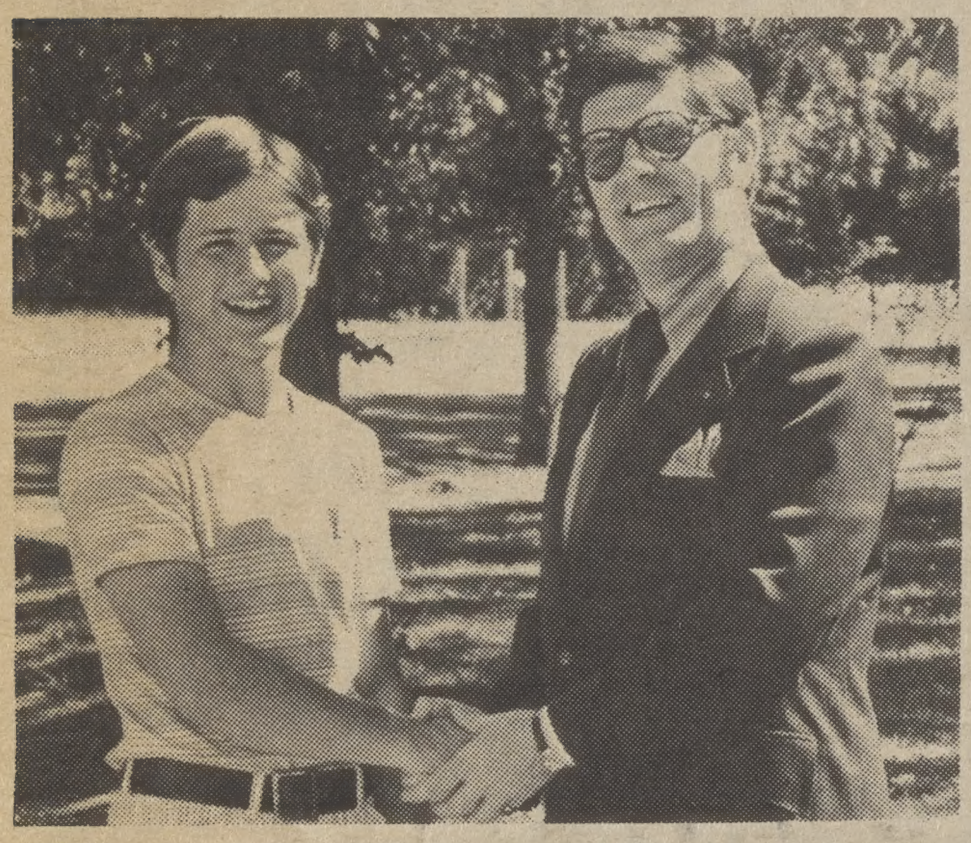
The vitality of any program cannot exceed that of its participants, and those who gain the most, who enjoy the most, are inevitably those who do the work.

Involvement, then, is the key. I was personally most pleased to see the number of young people who were responsible for the basic planning and work in this conference. Sixty five youths worked on the committees. Ideas for the conference were formed and communicated between the wards and the chairmen via the stake representative. The resulting plans were presented to, and OK'd by the adult committee members.

Thus, the movies, dances, sports, classroom workshops, meals, accomodations, publicity, Sunday services--everything--came about as the result of the efforts of the youth themselves.

The work effort is unfathomable, the gains, inestimable. The making of new friends, the participation in activities with others like themselves, the reaffirmation of testimonies through workshops and Sunday services, the taking-on of responsibilities--all are such a great part of Gospel living.

What an experience for these young people. It is a joy indeed to see the purposes of the Lord accomplished by them through opportunities such as this.



JOHN LAUPER, San Leandro Stake, greets Messenger Associate Editor Richard King.

1ST COUNSELOR in the San Leandro Stake Presidency Orval Ostler and his wife, Cleona, visit Saturday afternoon.

MARCY TRINIDAD of Hayward Stake is serenaded by Brad Anderson, also from Hayward.

THE FREE AGENCY, picking up where "The Sons of Mosiah," now defunct, left off, performed for two dances and conducted spiritual "workshops" during the day. All were formerly on drugs. Left to right: David Zandonatti, Randy Cruzeman, Dennis Mease, Frank Straight, and Alan Gerald Cherry.

ST. MARY'S COLLEGE, location of the three day Youth Conference, has many open spaces for games and sports. This shot, taken from a 2nd story dorm window, shows a football game in progress.

THE GYMNASIUM saw basketball during the days and vigorous dances Friday and Saturday nights. THE FREE AGENCY provided the music.

we thank our Bishopric very much. Let's hope we have as good a turn out for the picnic at Tilden Park the 28th of this month. Come one, come all; let's show the world that we really can live through another one!

El Cerrito

Once again, we have reason for pride in the accomplishments of one of the youth of our Ward. On display in the Clerk's Office are two trophies awarded to Kendall Bean for his participation in the MIA Young Artists' Music Festival held recently in Salt Lake City. We feel doubly fortunate in that Kendall frequently is called on to share his talent with us during Church services.

The summer months have brought a number of moves and changes to our Ward. Among those leaving the Ward are members of the Pugmire family - Leslie (Mickey), his wife Sharon, and their daughter Shauna - who moved into the Concord 3rd Ward area. Once again we say farewell and good luck to some truly hard-working and well loved members. To Barry and Michele Speare and their two children, Sonja and William, we offer the same farewell as they leave the Ward for a new home in Omaha where Barry will go to college. other members moving are the Marcey family to San Jose; Mary J. Smith to Dover, Arkansas; Robert Paul Johnson to the Berkeley Ward; Ruth Ann Wilkinson who was recently married to Sterling Stubblefield, to San Pablo.

Members called and set apart this month in the Ward were: David Gill as President of the Deacon's Quorum and Kenneth Brott as first counselor and James Smith as second counselor, William Woolf as Secretary; Perry Carter as Geneology Teacher; Mildred Carter as Homemaking Teacher in the Relief Society. Ordained as Teachers were Dennis Caswell and Daniel Slaughter. Colleen Watts was presented an award certificate for completion of the Teacher's Training Course.

OAKLAND 3rd NEWS
By Charlotte H. Smith

This past month Reed Ashby, son of Armis and Leland Ashby, received his Eagle Scout Award along with Mark McCuiston of Oakland 1st Ward. A special court of honor was held in their behalf. We congratulate them for this outstanding achievement.

We are proud of our ward for placing first in the Stake Road Show. "Nightmare Alley" was written by Eva and Jerry Hilton. The cast did an outstanding job and we are proud of all those who participated. Bonnie Hilton and Faye Borsis wrote the music. Eva Hilton directed it and Estrella Olszowka directed the music for the combined Oakland and Oakland 3rd ward MIA.

Fast and Testimony meeting was a rewarding day. Loy and Ethel Montgomery and their daughter, Laurie, were confirmed new members of the church. Their daughter, Melanie, was also blessed. Carolyn Wysocki, an adult, was also confirmed a new member. Rhonda Lee Phillips, daughter of Julie and Robert Phillips and Clifford March, son of Barbara and Don March, were eight year olds who were also confirmed members. Margaret and Michael Franklin had their baby son blessed along with Kathryn and William Goldberg who had their baby girl blessed the same day.

Three couples from our ward have been fortunate enough to attend the Cumorah Pageant this past month. They are Don and Annetta Wood, Joyce and Eugene Hilton and Josephine and William Wheeler.

The 24th of July Pioneer picnic held in Joaquin Miller Park was very successful with a large group attending from games, contests and a picnic.

The closing social for the MIA was a weiner roast held at Lake Temescal. All those attending had a delightful time.

We are sorry to have several families moving from our ward. Donna and Frank Ford are moving to Oklahoma. Julie and Bob Phillips are moving to Pleasanton. Marcia and William Endsley have moved to Provo, Utah and Dean and Shelley Soper are moving to Hayward. Good luck in your new homes.

Mission

By Leonard W. Cryer

On August 26, 1971, Terry Robert Axelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Axelson, of San Francisco, Calif., was married for time and eternity to Alta Fowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle A. Fowers, of Ogden, Utah, in the Salt Lake Temple.

Elder Axelson, Mission Ward General Secretary-Aaronic Youth, and Y.M.M.I.A. Superintendent, will finish his college education, at B.Y.U. next year. He and his wife, Alta, met in Japan two years ago, where both were serving as full-time missionaries.

Paul Shriber has been called to teach the Mission Ward Seminary students, starting September 9, 1971. He and his wife, Loni, are teachers of the ward's Sunday School Family Relations class, and Young Marrieds' leaders.

Mrs. Kathleen Larsen, who expects her second child soon, has been released as Ward Organist, Primary Organist, and Relief Society teacher, which positions she has held for several years. She, and her husband, Dr. C.D. Larsen, will soon be leaving the ward, because of his employment changes.

Zone Softball Competition

West Bay Dominates Tourney

By Gary Wood
Sports Editor

Church softball teams from the Westbay dominated the recent zone 3 playoffs leading to the very last All-Church tournament of any sport.

Palo Alto Stake proved to be the class of the zone this year, as Los Altos Ward defeated Hayward II Ward, Hayward Stake, 17-16, in the junior slow pitch division; and Sunnyvale III Ward downed Hayward II Ward 10-6, in senior slow pitch play.

In fast pitch competition, San Jose IV Ward, San Jose Stake, shut out Fremont II Ward, Fremont Stake, 7-0 as Ron Nelson pitched a no-hit, no-run game. The San Jose hurler stuck out 12 and walked none in facing just two more batters than the minimum possible over seven innings.

The only Eastbay team to earn a zone championship trophy was Pleasant Hill II Ward, Walnut Creek Stake, squeaking by Salinas Ward of Monterey Bay Stake, 4-2. Pleasant Hill broke a 2-2 deadlock in the final inning to notch the victory.

The most action-filled contest of the single elimination playoff was in the junior slow pitch division, in which Hayward II overcame a huge lead, built up a 10-run margin of their own, and then lost the game in the last inning on a frantic rally by Los Altos.

In the senior slow pitch contest, Sunnyvale III left fielder Mart Peterson walloped two home runs in succession to help his team to a victory.

"It was one of the best tournaments we've ever had," exlaimed Zone Athletic Director Fred Stone. "There was better sportsmanship, and fewer problems of any sort than in the past, and we're very pleased that it turned out so well.

The four victorious teams journeyed to Salt Lake City to compete in the "swan song" All-Church tournament. Church officials announced last month that Area tournaments will replace All-Church competition beginning next spring with basketball.

Last year, the junior slow pitch team from El Cerrito-Berkeley Ward of Oakland-Berkeley Stake came probably the closest any Zone 3 team has ever come to winning an All-Church tournament in softball as the Eastbay Ward team lost by a lone run in the championship game to a Modesto Ward team.

Number Two Wards Become Number One

Being number two sometimes means being number one, as proved by all four winners in the recent Eastbay regional softball championships.

Each of the eventual champion squads proudly displayed a big number two: Pleasant Hill II in the junior fast pitch category, Fremont II in senior fast pitch, Hayward II in junior slow pitch and Hayward II in senior slow pitch.

The team representing Pleasant Hill II won its way into the zone playoff by sweeping past three region foes. Champions of the Walnut Creek Stake, Pleasant Hill II Ward went on to become the only Eastbay team to earn a trip to All-Church in softball by defeating Salinas ward in the zone competition.

In region senior fast pitch play, Fremont II Ward's Mark Van Wagoner tossed a three-hitter in overcoming Pleasant Hill I Ward, 3-1.

It was a family affair in Eastbay region slow pitch championships, as the Hayward II Ward junior team won its final game, 10-5, and the ward's senior team triumphed 7-4 over Orinda Ward, Walnut Creek Stake.

The Pleasant Hill II squad kept up the ward's trophy tradition by earning the region sportsmanship award to go along with the region and zone championship trophies. The Pleasant Hill athletes are defending All-Church volleyball champs, and the ward is running out of trophy space.

The judges in the sportsmanship competition almost needed a microscope to select a winner in the senior bracket. Clayton Valley II Ward emerged as the winner, with a total of 96.75 points, followed by Concord III Ward, 96.0 and Fremont Ward, 95.75.

Junior Slow Pitch--Keith Bray, shortstop, Clayton Valley II.

Several items during the Eastbay regional playoffs were of interest:

--The champion team in the senior fast pitch division, Fremont II, lost out to Fremont I in stake play, and entered the region tournament because Oakland-Berkeley Stake failed to send a team in that division.

--The Hayward II junior slow pitch team performed the improbable feat of shutting out their opponents, 12-0, in the second round of the region tournament.

--The El Cerrito Ward junior slow pitch team from Oakland-Berkeley Stake, which lost the All-Church championship by a single run last season, lasted just one game in the region this year, bowing to Hayward II Ward, 14-8.

--Junior fast pitch teams are a disappearing breed; just three stakes out of nine entered a team in region competition this year: Oakland-Berkeley (Oakland I Ward), San Leandro (San Leandro I), Walnut Creek (Pleasant Hill II and Orinda).

The following are the other teams that participated in the Oakland-Walnut Creek bi-region tournament:

Senior Fast Pitch--San Lorenzo II Ward, San Leandro Stake; Dublin Ward, Hayward Stake; Vallejo III Ward, Napa Stake; San Lorenzo I Ward, San Leandro Stake.
